

I am bombarded with solicitation of all kinds in my mail, on television and E-Mail at work and at home. Telephone solicitation is the worst. I stop whatever I am doing to answer the phone only to find someone wanting to sell me something always at a bargain. This is my private home, private line. I don't want these phone calls! Stop the invading my private time!